MATEBOLE UNDERGROUND HIDE

Built in 2011, the Matebole Underground Hide was an immediate success, quickly gaining recognition as one of the premier wildlife photography locations in Africa. This hide's unique design provides a low-angle, intimate view of the animals, making it a favorite for photographers worldwide. The hide is sturdy, completely elephant-proof and is situated along these main migratory routes, ensuring frequent elephant visits..

The hide comfortably accommodates up to eight photographers, allowing them to lay out their lenses and capture the classic scenes of Mashatu as they unfold before them.

Details:

- Accommodates 8 people and is booked per person on a shared basis.
- A choice of morning or an afternoon session, lasting about three hours
- There are options to book the hide on an exclusive use basis and for full days.

Recommended lenses: From wide angle to ultra-zoom lenses: 16-35mm, 24-70mm, 70-200mm and up to a 500/600mm lenses.

Family Happy Hour at the Hide, a new offering for families with younger children (under 12). Families can book an hour-long session either after the morning game drive or before the afternoon drive, with a special rate of $35 per person.

CAPTURE WILDLIFE LIKE NEVER BEFORE

The custom-built PhotoMashatu Vehicle offers an extraordinary photography experience on the go. Designed by professional wildlife photographers, It features cushioned, dustproof, and waterproof storage compartments for quick access to your lenses and other photographic gear. With two rows that can accommodate up to 4 people, the vehicle is ideally suited for 2 individuals, each having a row to themselves.

This unique vehicle combines the comfort of a private vehicle with an exclusive photographic journey. Alongside the Mashatu ranger/driver, a dedicated Photo Mashatu wildlife photographer joins you, providing technical and compositional guidance, predicting animal behaviour, and positioning the vehicle to capture the best lighting, angles, and surroundings for your photography.

Ultimately, the Photo Vehicle delivers a very rewarding photographic adventure, enabling you to seize all the visual opportunities during your game drive.
